

Prof. Dr. Harald A. Mieg (Berlin, born 1961)

Curriculum Vitae

Since 2014	Directing a national research project on undergraduate research in Germany (15 universities involved)
Since 2012	Honorary Professor, Institute of Geography, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
Since 2012	Professor of Research and Innovation, Potsdam University of Applied Sciences, Undergraduate Research Project
2011	Senior Fellow at Institute of Advanced Sustainability Studies
2005-2011	Director of the Georg-Simmel Center for Metropolitan Studies at Humboldt-University (www.gsz.hu-berlin.de)
2004-2010	Hans-Sauer Professor of Metropolitan Studies and Innovation at Humboldt University, Institute of Geography
2001-2004	Member of the Swiss national working group for the fusion of Swiss associations of environmental professionals.
1998-2004	Assistant Professor / Professor of Human-Environmental Interaction at the Department of Environmental Sciences, ETH Zurich
1999	"Habilitation" in Environmental Social Sciences, ETH Zurich
1995-1997	MBA Zurich / Stanford (diploma in 2003)
1997	Visiting scholar at Chicago University (Sociology, Prof. Abbott)
1994	Internship at International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) at the UN Headquarters in New York
1993-1997	Research assistant & project manager at the Chair of Social and Natural Science Interface, ETH Zurich (Prof. Scholz), trans-disciplinary planning case studies (e.g. Zurich North)
1990-1993	Dissertation in Social Psychology and Philosophy at Mannheim University (Prof. Irle). Philosophy assistant (to Prof. Delius)
1989	Diploma in Psychology / Mathematics at Mannheim University
1982-1989	Studies in Munich, Vienna, Paris, Mannheim